

A.W.A. ANNOUNCES AUTUMN NOCTURNE SONG FESTIVAL

"Autumn Nocturne," a song festival in which all students may participate, will be held November 22 under the sponsorship of A.W.A.

Any group of eight or more participants, excluding recognized organizations on campus, may compete in the event, including all-male, all-women or mixed ensembles. Each group is limited to one song which may not be original, although the arrangement may be original. The songs may range from nursery rhymes to operatic numbers.

Application blanks must be submitted to "Song Fest" in Box S in the Spartan Shop before October 30.

Prizes will be presented to the winning group. If there are enough all-male, all-women, and mixed groups entered in the fest, three divisions will be used in judging. The best presentation in each classification will then receive a prize.

In charge of the event is Nancy Lynn, who presented the idea to the AWA. Miss Lynn obtained her idea from the music festivals held at Stanford University each year.

DR. STAFFELBACH HONORED AT DINNER

Dr. E. H. Staffebach, Education department head, was honored at a dinner given by members of the department recently at the Hotel Sainte Claire. Dr. Staffebach has returned to San Jose State college after three years' leave of absence during which time he served as a lieutenant colonel in the Army Air Corps.

Another event given by the department was their annual tea for all resident teachers, who take the college student teachers into their classrooms for practice work. The tea was for the purpose of acquainting the teachers with the rules and customs of the Education department.

C.C.F. SENDS DELEGATE TO YOUTH CONFERENCE

At Monday's meeting of the Collegiate Christian Fellowship association, President Dorian Baker appointed Miriam Primrose to represent the group at a Young People's Conference which will be held at the Mission Covenant Church in Oakland Thursday, October 25.

Young People's Groups of the entire Bay area should be represented at this Conference, as the purpose of the meeting will be to plan bigger and better "Youth for Christ" rallies to be held in the future.

Miss Primrose and her sister, Muriel, both San Jose State college students, are regular members of the All-Girl's Chorus which is active in "Youth for Christ" rallies in San Jose.

CHEST DRIVE NEARS END CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE FIGHTS TIME TO MEET $1400 QUOTA BY FRIDAY

Fighting time with hard-fisted pressure, propaganda, and contests, the War Chest campaign committee rolled into its first day of revival by collecting $160 at the noon rally in the quad yesterday. Holding a session with all organization leaders on campus, ASB President Milo Badger appointed a body of minute men and assigned them to contact every person of their organizations and spread word of the emergency drive that is fast coming to a close. Faculty members dug deep into their wallets and came forth with $452 to bring them into the final stages of their drive, with only $275 to go to reach their quota of $4200. Still $1400 short of their quota, the student body minute men will be making personal contacts with students and organizations for individual and treasury contributions.

At the rally in the quad yesterday, Dean of Men Paul Pitman touched the hearts of every student

Book Exchange Will Re-open Thursday

San Jose State's Student Book Exchange, under the management of Stella Barreto, president, and Frances Bogan, business manager, will reopen Thursday, October 25. Students will be paid money for books sold, and all unsold books will be returned to the owners.

The exchange is open at the beginning and end of each quarter, so students may either buy or sell books at a bargain price.

The following people are asked to call for their money next Thursday between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., at the booth in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium (stubs must be presented to establish identity before money can be paid out):

Mary Lou Allen, Bernice Bassi, Kathleen Calwell, Louise Chabre, Laura Cook, Marilyn Creason, Linnea Danbom, Yvonne Fielder, Frances Fitzgerald, Marie Geraci, Ann Hansen, Helen Kennemer, Betty Kisting, Rowland Mitchell, Cecile Monahan, Shirley Poston.

Magazine Plugs Ex-Spartan Star

Latest issue (October 22) of Time magazine plugs a former San Jose State college star as one of the outstanding gridders in professional football this season.

LeRoy Zimmerman, ex-Spartan fullback, is mentioned on Page 63 of Time as the quarterback who makes the Philadelphia Eagles club click.

Zimmerman joined the Washington Redskins pro football team after starring with the high-scoring Spartans of 1938 and 1939 under Dudley DeGroot and "Pop" Warner. He was later traded to the Philadelphia Eagles, which last year won seven, tied two and lost one game. They use the "T" formation.

Pom-Pons Add Color

"Pom-pons are half the sparkle of a rooting section," declares Nancy Nyman, co-chairman for the Delta Beta Sigma sale of pom-pons for football games and rallies. The sale will start on the day of the first football game to be played here.

Proceeds from the sale will be added to the football fund. The price of the pom-pons, which have been made by Delta Beta Sigma, is 25 cents.

Spears Hold Annual Lost And Found Sale

From 10 until 4 o'clock today in front of Morris Dailey auditorium, the Spartan Spears will hold their quarterly Lost and Found sale of articles.

Stella Barreto and Johanna Barmetler are co-chairmen in charge of the sale, the proceeds of which will go to campus drives such as the War Chest, the Red Cross, and others.

According to Misses Barreto and Barmetler, pens, jewelry, books, scarves, jackets, tennis shoes, and many other useful articles will be on sale. The prices will range from five cents to a dollar.

Assisting Miss Barreto and Miss Barmetler will be Jean Wolff, Charlotte Harder, Beverly Clay, Dorothy Lyons, Pat Polk, Beverly Sack, Elizabeth Leecing, Betty Sills, Monie Wishart, Barbara Jensen, Betty Davis, and Carol Lantz.

RALLY POSTPONED; GAME CANCELLED

Because of the cancellation of the Hollister game, there will be no football rally today, announces Irene Hull, Rally committee chairman. Plans for future rallies will be made as soon as the football schedule is worked out. There will be a rally Friday at 12:30, if plans for a game with San Mateo Merchant Marine academy are completed.

The scheduled Rally committee meeting for yesterday at 12:30 was also cancelled to enable students to attend the War Chest rally.

All members of the Rally committee will meet outside the Publications office tomorrow at 12:30 to have a picture taken for La Torre.

FROSH MAKE LAST TRY FOR WAR CHEST DRIVE

Today in the Quad from 9 until 4:30 o'clock, Group A of the Freshman Affairs committee, will sponsor a booth for the collection of donations to the War Chest.

The freshmen are making a last effort to collect enough money for the War Chest in order that they can gain 25 points for the Freshman - Sophomore Mixer, awarded to the class collecting the most money.

Floyd Hunter, chairman of Group A, urges all those freshmen in Group A to be at the meeting today at 11 o'clock in Room 139 and to bring their donations with them.

BATS, BOOGIES HAUNTS DANCE

Bats, boogies, and broomsticks will haunt quivering couples at the "Witch's Waltz" in the Men's gymnasium Friday night.

A surprise entrance will greet students attending this first "date" dance of the year given by the Social Affairs committee. The dance will be dressy sport, and admission will be free to student body card holders and 55 cents to those without cards. One person in each couple must be a student-body card holder.

Benny Glassman's orchestra will provide the music, which will be both sweet and swing.

Kae Goepfert and Greg McGregor head the decoration committee, and Patsy Young is in charge of posters. Beverly Sack is chairman of the bid committee, and Phil Robertson is in charge of refreshments.

SPARTANS DEFEAT SALINAS J. C. BY SCORE OF 13-0

By WARREN BRADY

With the gigantic, ever-worthy War Chest drive going on all last week, as well as this week, the Spartan football victory over Salinas J. C. Friday night was somewhat slighted.

As you all know by this time, the Yearlings completely outclassed the Jaycees by a 13-0 count. Coach Bill Hubbard's men showed much improvement since their first encounter with Hollister early last week. Hubbard praised the improved play of the Spartan ends and tackles, and the backfield work of Will Conklin and Archie Chagonjian.

State's blocking and interference was much sharper, as was their pass and punt protection. The Spartans have a valuable addition to the squad in the form of Pete Denevi, 185 pound halfback formerly of Los Gatos. Denevi was All-SCVAL in his senior year at 'Gatos.

Tuesday night's return game with Hollister J. C. was called off by Hollister officials early Saturday morning. Hollister has abandoned football for the remainder of the season because of the loss of many of their Navy trainee players who have been transferred.

Word has it from Coach Bill Hubbard that Denevi may work into the key quarterback spot in the "T" formation employed by the Spartans. Denevi would probably do most of the passing and punting from this spot also.

The Staters almost had a couple more scores Friday night, and with a little bit of Old Lady Luck could have run up the score considerably. In the third quarter big Elgin Martin deflected a Salinas pass that Fullback Bob Stulman scooped up for the Spartans and returned to the Salinas 34. The yearlings then drove to the 18 yard line, where they were stopped by a fumble. The Spartans fumbled five times Friday night, which is too much for any club.

Again late in the fourth quarter, on a Salinas fake punt, the Spartans took over the ball on the Jaycee 20 yard line. The freshmen drove within the enemy 10 yard line on a pass from Stevenson to Barrett, but again were held on downs.

Phi Mu Alpha Plans Autumn Recital

Plans for a fall Founders Day recital were discussed at the first meeting of Phi Mu Alpha fraternity at the home of Thomas Eagan last Tuesday evening. The recital will commemorate the 56th anniversary of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia fraternity, national organization which was founded at the New England Conservatory of Music October 6, 1889.

The Phi Mu Alpha fraternity is a chapter of the national music honorary society and is the only national fraternity on campus.

A mixer for music majors and music minors jointly sponsored with Mu Phi Epsilon will be held at a future date. The group also discussed plans for a Phi Mu Alpha Rally Band which, when organized, will play at the basketball games.

Officers of the fraternity are: President, Carl Willson; vice-president, Jack Ward; secretary, Verne Williamson; treasurer, Thomas Eagan; historian, Ray McIntyre; sgt. at arms, Clinton Boles; alumni secretary, Bill Courtney. George T. Matthews, acting head of the Music department, is the adviser.

Thirteen Tolls

Thirteen tolls rang out from the bell in the tower yesterday noon. Each toll represented the lives of ten men who once strolled leisurely about the campus as we do today. The bell could be heard across the quad where our noon rally was being held. It could be heard on the steps of our library, down by the Student Union above the noise of traffic and chattering voices in the Co-op. One hundred thirty are dead today because a great nation had to be preserved. But on the day they died, they weren't thinking of international controversies; nor the mistakes of the congressional body that cast out a League of Nations after the last war; nor were they struggling with any false idealistic hopes, but they fought to be once again at home with loved ones, to return again to a future in a peaceful world, perhaps to stroll the campus and join in a bull session or walk their favorite gal to her next class.

These men are dead now, and they did not hear the bell that rang out for them on campus. In their lifetime they heard another music. They heard the music of bazooka, a sweet bazooka; they heard the singing of a hundred hundred shells from heaven, and they felt the concussion of myriads of chords crashing all around them. They are dead, but the cause for which they died is still with us. For their sake, the pains of humanity must be considered. They gave their life. Can we give a dollar for the War Chest?

There will be a very important meeting of the campus Veterans organization, Mu Delta Pi, this evening at 7 in Room 2. All members and new veterans are cordially invited.

Many veterans now attending college are married and depend upon the school functions for the greater part of their social activities; naturally they desire to have their wives accompany them.

In some instances activities are limited to student body card holders only, thus preventing the attendance of wives who are not students. In other instances where there is an admission fee to non-student body card holders, it is an additional expense on an already overburdened budget.

It is suggested that consideration be given to the issuance, for a nominal fee, of an activity card to veterans' wives.

Dear Thrust and Parry:

It must be of interest to several students on campus that there are certain traditions about the wearing of non-SJSC blocks on the campus of San Jose State.

In the past there used to be a letterman's society on the campus which, in its own way, saw to it that high school, junior college, and collegiate blocks awarded by other institutions were not worn on this campus by SJSC students.

Whether or not the Block SJS society is re-activated, it should be to the interest of every student that the tradition is upheld. If some student is forgetful, let us remind him; if he is neglectful, or obstinately disloyal, his habits should be changed.

It is to the interest of all students to see that new students do not continue to flaunt their past athletic records at State. What we are interested in is their present record.
